A Bulb That Lasts

It happens to everyone. You flip a switch. The light does not turn on. The bulb is burned out. It is time to change the bulb. This happens in houses all over the world. Today light bulbs only last a few months. Sometimes they only last weeks. Then we have to put a new bulb in again. Why can't bulbs last longer?

There is one light bulb that has lasted a long time. It has been on for over 100 years! The light bulb is in a fire station. It is in Livermore, California. It was made by the Shelby Electric Company. It was first used on a fire hose cart in 1901. Then it went to a fire station. It stayed there for more than 70 years. Then it moved to a different fire station. It is still there today.

The bulb is always on. Once it was turned off for a week. This was to fix the first fire station. It was also off for 22 minutes. This was to move the bulb to the new station. Now the bulb is never turned off. It has a special battery. It will stay on if the electricity goes out.

- ☐ Frequent two- and three-word phrases giving the impression of choppy reading; improper stress and intonation that fail to mark ends of sentences and clauses.
- ☐ Mixture of run-ons, mid-sentence pauses for breath, and possibly some choppy reading; reasonable stress/intonation.
- ☐ Generally well phrased, mostly in clause and sentence units, with adequate attention to expression.

Rate Student Smoothness

- ☐ Frequent extended pauses, hesitations, false starts, sound-outs, repetitions, and/or multiple attempts.
- ☐ Several 'rough spots' in text where extended pauses, hesitations, etc., are more frequent and disruptive.
